GREENVILLE

Local Mention—Father Mathew Society's Whist Tournament.

Miss Hortense Washburn of South Coventry is visiting friends on Central avenue.

Local pharmacists have received copies of the laws passed by the last general assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Malone and family of Central avenue were guests of William relatives over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yeomans, Jr. of South Windham, were guests of the former's parents, on Central avenue, Sunday.

Joseph Goudou, who has been employed for the past six weeks at a machine engine plant at Lynn, Mass., is in town for a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Matthews have returned from a few days' visit in Hartford and New Haven, attending the Yale-Princeton game Saturday.

John Edwards has resigned from the employ of the Connecticut company and has left town for his home in Indiana. Mr. Edwards had been in the employ of the company for four months, and his friends were numerous.

Games are now being played almost nightly by two or more teams at the Father Mathew whist tournament in the society's whist tournament. As 50 point games are being played, each game takes about two hours. Nine teams have thus far participated in these Joseph O'Sullivan and Felix McMahon have played the most games, winning the majority. Some teams have not yet started in the tournament.

CASES CONTINUED

UNDER $2,000 BONDS.

Two Young Men Will Have Hearing Next Week—Chicken Thieves Sent to Jail—Non-Support Case.

In the city court on Monday morning the case against Lee Hill of New Haven and Gerald Babson of Waterbury, charged with attempting to lure young women away for immoral purposes, came up by adjournment. The case was again continued until next Tuesday under bonds of $2,000 in each case and they went back to jail.

Charles William Spencer, charged with luring and giving ninety days in jail. James Fry of the same charge was given 45 days and costs.

On the charge of non-support Charles L. Pontes of New Bedford was presented and he was put under a bond of $100 to give his wife $2.50 a week for the support of herself and child.

HAPPY RESULTS

Have Made Many Norwich Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Norwich citizens glow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Norwich by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Miss Amy M. Wilcox, 23 McKinley Avenue, Norwich, Conn., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are entitled to my strongest recommendation. Off and on for some time I was annoyed to quite an extent by a dull, heavy ache across my loins and kidneys. Those who have had similar experiences will realize how much misery and inconvenience knowing how I was troubled, recommended Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured them from N. D. Sevin & Son's drug store. They proved effective from the first, and it was only a short time after commencing their use that I was completely relieved."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

CLOSING NIGHT OF REVIVAL

Standing Room was at a Premium in Central Baptist Church—Dr. Stough Tells of the Great Benefit His Work Has Been to Him—thousand or More Accompany Evangelists to Station.

Five weeks of a union evangelistic campaign in this city, conducted by Rev. Henry W. Stough, D. D., Rev. F. O. Cunningham, D. D., and Mr. Arthur L. Herring, came to an end Monday night, culminating in a large and enthusiastic farewell service at the Central Baptist church and a farewell demonstration at the railroad depot. The church millinery in this city. When the last good-byes had been said at the church, a big part of the congregation of about a thousand people accompanied Rev. Stough and his three associates to the Consolidated road station to see them off on their trip. Members of the chorus choir took up the songs that have been favorites during the campaign. Rev. Mr. Cunningham unlimbered his ax and, as the train started, he sang a song of farewell. It was a touching scene, and Rev.
